THIS IS IT

We are your best choice for innovative Information Technology solutions designed for efficiency, durability and functionality. We have evolved over time and we are convinced that we are ready to serve your IT business needs with the best of our skills and expertise. We were licensed to start full operations on 24th October 2018 and we are excited about the future with you in it.

Who we are

What we do

At LinQworth, our first priority is to bridge the gap between the client's desire and the most suitable solution in a friendly yet professional business space. We provide services such as consultation, Web technology, Graphic design, computer infrastructure and support.

I.T. Consultation

I.T. Consultation is the hallmark of our services. We go to long lengths to present the best solution to your problems.

I.T. Security

We cannot stress how important it is to secure your internet and cloud activities.

Support & Maintenance

We are a call away from attending to any issues you face while using your system.

Vision

Our vision is to transform and contribute positively to the expansion of the operations of every client we encounter using the power of Information Technology.

Mission

- To empower our clients to optimize their operations and discover more possibilities using Information Technology.
- To provide cutting-edge and cost-effective IT solutions to our clients.
- To ensure that we provide the most secure and dynamic solutions.
- To provide our clients with the best customer experience.
- To contribute immensely to the growth of Africa and the world at large.
- To turn client feedback into action.
